

[Received June 3, 1919]

[addressed to Camp Grant, Ills.]

Danville Ills.

May- 28-

My Dear Paul-

By the time I mail this tomorrow morning you will be landing in Chicago. I was really surprised that you left N.Y. so soon. But it was a glad surprise. I wrote you a post card yesterday which I also sent to Chicago.

Before this time next week I expect to see you.

This has been a beautiful day. Warm and sunny. But I have worked hard and sure am all in. Am going to bed about eight-thirty.

Some people are expecting Co. D. home tomorrow. If they come we will get off part of the day, and of course we will be off all day Friday. I suppose you will be parading Chicago then.

We girls took some good pictures Sunday. Your kodak takes dandy pictures now. I guess I didn't know how to use it at first.

Well ours is a quiet neighborhood these days. No young people around at all it seems. If you find any excitement you will have to make it yourself or else go some where else.

Pearl said she was coming to meet you when she saw you coming home. We told her you wouldn't know her and she said she would tell you her name.

Well I'll tell you everything when you come home which is a matter of only a few days now.

With Love as ever Cecil.

excuse a pencil please.