Hadassah members who have not yet paid dues are asked to do so as soon as possible. Send them directly to national Hadassah or to Jean Rosenbaum. For further information contact Beverly Manne, membership chairperson, 424-5682

The gross receipts for our 1996-97 yearbook including ads and patrons page are $4222. This includes four ads that have not yet been paid. Our expenses include $370 for printing the yearbook, and $11.11 for mailing yearbooks out of town, which gives us a net profit of $3840.89. We could have done better if more of you had helped. I want to give special thanks to my husband, who set up many of the ads on the computer, and who delivered almost all of the yearbooks.

COMMUNITY NEWS

Molly Aczel, a former member of our congregation, writes that the Davis Academy in Atlanta, Georgia, opened last month. It is among 20 Reform Jewish Day Schools nationally, and is the only one in Georgia. We congratulate Molly, as she planned the school and is its head.

Marc Glasser, another former Baytonian, called to wish our community a happy New Year. He said that he would like to have been with us for services, but needed to be with his parents who are not well.

24TH ANNUAL JEWISH BOOK FAIR

Exciting authors and programs will highlight this event to be held November 3-17, at the Jewish Community Center, 5601 South Braeswood. Open to the entire community, the Book fair is a two-week series of lectures and guest appearances featuring some of America's finest authors.

SIR MARTIN GILBERT will be the opening night speaker. Other personages will include playwright, NEIL SIMON, mystery writer, FAYE KELLERMAN, best-selling author, RABBI HAROLD KUSHNER, Professor of Jewish Spirituality, DANIEL MATT, and novelist ANNE ROIPHE, among the 30+ authors scheduled to appear.

Additionally, the Book Fair will feature children's story-telling, writing workshops for children and teens, a 15000 volume Bookstore, reading areas and book signing after author presentations. A cafe offering complimentary gourmet coffee and a Botique are also included. Call 729-3231 for additional program and ticket information.
