SEPTEMBER 2009

In brief

First-Friday change

The first-Friday service scheduled for Sept. 4 is being moved to the second Friday of the month, Sept. 11, due to Labor Day weekend. The Bright family will host a special birthday oneg. Everyone is invited to enjoy a light meal and lots of cake and ice cream.

We receive $4,273 grant

Thanks to Janet Bright's perseverance, CKI has been given a grant of $4,273 from the Jewish Federation of Greater Houston to be applied to the renovation project. The foundation has funded many Jewish facilities that were damaged during Hurricane Ike, and we are very grateful for its consideration of our needs.

Yearbook nearly ready

The new Hadassah yearbook has gone to the printer and will be ready in September. Thank you to everyone who sold ads and/or helped with the yearbook: Gertrude Teter, Joan Linares, Natalie Altman, Jean Rosenbaum, Beverly Manne and Judy Rains.

Hadassah ramping up for another busy year

The Hadassah officers met this summer to plan some exciting programs for the upcoming year. We will not meet in September due to the High Holy Days, but we will have our first meeting/program in October. All of the information will be included in the new Hadassah yearbook. We encourage everyone to attend our programs this year.

This year's officers are the same as last year:

- Joan Linares, president and programs
- Shana Bauman, vice president
- Gertrude Teter, treasurer
- Harriet Lopez, secretary

Don Teter is among those who will lead High Holy Day services.
