

August 22, 1917.

Grove Park Inn,
Asheville, N. C.

Gentlemen:

Your recent letter to hand.

I beg to say that it is my present intention to arrive in Asheville Monday, August 27th, on the morning express from New Orleans, and, unless advised to the contrary, hope that you will be good enough to reserve a room similar to No. 280 mentioned in your letter, for me.

Very truly yours,