

Tuesday
November 20, 1934.

The meeting was called to order by the president who made the following announcement. A representative of the National Geographic will give the society a special lecture if we so desire.

A motion was made to accept the offer and was accepted.

The old, old business of dues was brought before the club next. Payment of one dollar for first semester was asked for immediately.

Dance theme discussion open with many lively reports. The idea of placing a box in the Daily Post for suggestions met a very unfavorable reception and the idea was immediately laid on the table.

There was much discussion pro and con for many themes but the theme causing much comment both ways was that of prehistoric. Much was said of the freedom it would allow in decorations - many clever remarks were made. Talbot Wilson discussed the Prehistoric theme from the standpoint of beauty - the pageantry it would offer - the artistic side and the lighting effects.

There was a motion to the effect that the tentative name Prehistoric be deleted and subject to change if a better name suggested. The motion was carried.

Robert Rich gave a short discussion of costumes.

A final warning was issued about dues.

Committee for the dance are to be named after the Thanksgiving holidays.

The president called for a motion to adjourn.
