

First competition
(5.1.)

(Mailed to the attached list on March 6, 1928.)

DEPARTMENT OF ARCHITECTURE

THE RICE INSTITUTE

FIRST ANNUAL TRAVELING SCHOLARSHIP IN ARCHITECTURE.

* * *

The first annual competition for the Traveling Scholarship in Architecture at the Rice Institute will take place beginning Saturday, March 31, 1928. This scholarship carrying a stipend of $1200.00 and calling for the successful competitor to spend at least eight months in residence in Europe, following an approved itinerary of study and travel, and preparing certain sketches and measured drawings, has been made possible by the following friends of the Institute: -- Messrs. W. L. Clayton, E. L. Neville, W. C. Hedrick, Geo. S. Cohen, F. A. Heitmann, Cleveland Sewall, Alfred C. Finn, and Wm. Ward Watkin.

The competition is open to graduates holding the degree of Bachelor of Science in Architecture from the Rice Institute who may be under thirty years of age and unmarried, and undergraduate students in the fifth year, candidates for said degree.

The subject of the competition will be a problem in advanced design, the competition extending from March 31st to noon, Saturday, May 26th; the sketch to be taken enloge in 9 consecutive hours, beginning at 8:30 A.M. Saturday morning, March 31st, and extending to 5:30 the afternoon of that day.

The work upon the drawings after completion of sketch will be under criticism of the professor of architecture, and all drawings shall be made in the Department of Architecture at the Institute. Drafting tables and spaces will be assigned to those graduate students who return to enter this competition.

The judgment of completed drawings and award of scholarship will be made by the faculty of architecture prior to commencement, and the announcement will be made at commencement.

WM. WARD WATKIN,

Professor of Architecture.