

Monday
October 22, 1934.

The President called the meeting to order and asked for old business. As there was none - the plans for initiation were brought up. It was decided pledges should wear their "Cape and bow" on Wednesday and Thursday and the initiation should take place one week from Friday which will be November 2, 1934. at Seven O'clock.

Lewis Morris and Carl Elliot were appointed to attend to the details.

After this short discussion all feminine members were requested to continue elsewhere their initiation plans while the male robust members hold their discussion for a more rigorous procedure.
