

Abilene, Texas
Oct 24, 1916

Mr. Otto H. Eisenlohr,
Houston,
Texas.

Dear Mr. Eisenlohr: -

May we express to you in the kindest and humblest way that we are capable of, our sincerest thanks for your love and sympathy, and for your coming to Abilene. Your presence was such a comfort to us in so great a grief. Without the love and sympathy of others it would be impossible to be brave at such a time. Your presence meant so much to us that the tender ties of love, which are entwined around our hearts, can never be broken.

I know your mother was glad to see you. I hope you found them all well and enjoying the best things of life, and that the day for you was the most pleasant possible.

With love and best wishes

Mr. & Mrs. J.H. Goss

[Envelop enclosed]

[Postmark] Abilene Oct 24, 1916

Mr. Otto H. Eisenlohr
Rice Institute,
Houston,
Texas.