Well sweetheart this time last week I was about the happiest person alive, I sure do wish it was last week, only I would want it to be a whole lot warmer, because last night while we were at supper a northern came up and believe me it sure did get cold in a hurry and has been cold all day and is even a little colder tonight, but honey if you were here, well maybe you would have to warm me. I wish you had been with me walking out that night, don't forget what it was that you wanted to tell me. I wish you would tell me what it was that you wanted me to promise you, honey you know that I am not just curious but I really want to know. Just two weeks from tonight and I am coming out to see you, that is of course, if you will let me. Oh it seems to good to be true.

John got back last night and I course as is always my luck, he got in the aviation corp, but he is going to stay until Xmas so that will make things just a little better until then, I don't know who I am going to room with after Christmases, but maybe it will be with a boy from Texas called Mathewson, his roommate has also gone, no only trouble is he now rooms way over in the new dormitory and neither one of us want to change but maybe matters can be adjusted.

Honey, I sure do want to have that date with you to go to the dance only I feel like I am going to be sort of out of place, so don't forget now. Maybe I am going to be quarantined Christmases, we have five cases of measles out here and there is no telling what may happen, but if I were to even hear of such a move, I would sure move down town, as I would go crazy if I thought I had to stay down here during the holidays. There is no danger of me staying here anyway. We are going to try to get through my exams and clear you out. Know how good you made me feel over what you said. And you can believe me that whenever I make you a promise I'll sure do my best to carry it out. You know Gainer the more I think about joining something the more foolish it seems to me, and then again it seems just the other way, oh honey what I need is you, I always feel better when I can ask you things and get your ideas, you know two heads are better than one anyway.

You know I have been wanting to phone Ethel ever since you left but haven’t had a chance. The time is so short at night when we can use the phone and then it is generally very busy. But I will phone Ethel tomorrow or after I finish writing if it isn’t too late.

I knew you were going to have to work hard when you got back but honey just don’t work that hard and take care of yourself.

Weren’t you sorry when you went home and found such a poor letter? This one is going to be just about like it. But there really isn’t anything to write about, I mean news and happenings etc. you know.

No honey I didn’t care about you telling sister I to R. O. T. C.
They don't care anyway.

Sure will be glad when summer comes again and we can be together like we were last summer, but I'm just naturally afraid that Miss Mary didn't like my coming up here so much.

Tell you the truth, I really can't stand here, but I always felt at home when I came up and I sure enjoyed being with you.

Jane going to try to get to write you tomorrow. I intend to study the best part of the day and then see when I get tired, I will write a letter for recreation.

Well honey, two weeks from tonight and we can be talking about what we did down here,

I would rather do that than write anything with lots and lots of love.
