Friday

Ganor sweetheart, it seems like a year since I wrote you last. I don't see why you didn't get my letter last Monday, because I mailed it at the same time I always mail them, when I didn't get any letter Wed. I thought that maybe you hadn't got my letter, but then when I didn't get any yesterday I didn't know what was wrong. I was feeling pretty blue anyway so when I walked past the phone I just decided I would phone you. What did your people think about it. Now tell me just exactly what they thought, hear. I guess I ought

Not to have done it, but I sure am glad I did, it sure did seem good to hear your voice, even if you were a long way off.

I sure did think a whole lot about last 4th July yesterday. I believe I remember everything that happened that day.

I did something the other day that I have never done before in my life. Every time before we began eating except at breakfast, we always say a little blessing and so naturally my time had to come around and I said it. It sure made me feel funny though because I had never done anything like that before.

Last Wednesday night we had a dance out here at the house and we sure did have a good time, you know that was the first dance I had been to since last Thanksgiving with you, honey I didn't know but two of the girls, but it doesn't take long to get acquainted with these sorority girls. We danced until one and then after we had all got back home, seven of us got in the 'river' and went to town to get something to eat, so it was sorter late when we got to bed. I got up at seven though and managed someway to get dressed by 7:30, had breakfast all by myself and then brother came by for me and we went out and worked on the farm all morning when we came back I was powerful hungry so I ate dinner with him and then came out to the house and ate dinner again. I sure wish you could have gone to San Marcus with us yesterday afternoon.

I sure needed something like that to keep me going, but honey we sure did have a good time. Of course married people always go with married people but that doesn't mean that they are not folly. We had two cars full yesterday. Gainer honey, there was the funniest old man in the car with us. He sure did love to tease his wife and he was stuffed full of jokes, I sure did love to laugh at him and then the swim was simply splendid. Honey we sure will have to go swimming in September, for getting to where I can swim a little bit now, but I simply can't dive, it hurts my head. We didn't have a single puncture going down and that is when we generally expect them, because the roads are so hot, so when we started home we didn't think about punctures, and darned if we didn't have two. For getting to be an expert now, though, I never takes over five minutes to change tires, but when we only had one extra on, so the next time we had to change casings and inner tubes and also use a blooming old hand pump, but we got in, finally.

"Honey you don't know how much I miss you when we go on trips like that. I sure do wish for you, sweetie."

It sure does seem like I have been gone more than three weeks. I thought it had been longer but then I see it hasn't. Two more weeks in this term and then 6 weeks more. I don't think I'll fail in these courses. I've had four exams and passed them all, and I passed in all my lab work so far. Sometimes I really don't care though.

what becomes of me, I feel so useless.

I don't see why you say that you are going to turn into a peach you are already that.

The other night some of the boys were riding around in the car and they happened to see a watermelon wagon so they decided to get some and they did, just before the car passed the wagon two of them jumped up and the car passed the wagon, well these boys got some melons from out of the back of the wagon and rolled them in a ditch and they got some more until they had nine

The car just went to the next corner and went around the block and then came back, picked up the melons and came on out to the house. It sure looked funny when they came walking in with all those melons, the next night they went out and only got two and the man got after them then. They sure were good melons though.

It seems like everybody up there is getting married. Who is next?

This week has seemed like a bunch of holidays to me. We always have one on mondays and then the 4th also.
Go to school two days and then rest two. I'm afraid I will be awful lazy before September.
I ran out of paper and this was all that I could find, but it will do, won't it.

Honey, I don't know what in the world to do, brother is not much in favor of me going into the army now, but he said he would leave it to me. You know that is an awful big step for me, and I don't know what to do. There is going to be a camp at H. Monroe Va.
In October for registrants and I don't know whether I can get in it or not. It is the coast Artillery and I would like to go. Two of the boys from here are going.

Wont you come go swimming with me, dear?

With all my love.
