Wednesday

Sweetheart mine you are just simply the dearest person I know. I just came back from bat and when I went over to get my mail there was also a nice big box of candy and honey it’s so good. I have been eating a whole lot of it while there is no one here because I know how fast it will go when they do get here. Thank you a thousand times for it dear. You know just as I was about to leave for Ethels yesterday afternoon I did get my letter after all. I am was glad too because I had been thinking about you all day and I knew I was supposed to get a letter and that I would probably the man brought the mail out.

Had a rather varied experience last night. You know I told you I was going out to Ethel's for supper the week before I did, and had an awful good time. They have a player piano and so before supper Ethel and I were in there playing it, and after supper Ethel joined us. We had been playing quite a few pieces when we stopped and we heard the angriest commotion going on downstairs. Now it'll have to explain that the house in which they live has an upstairs and downstairs and Ethel and Ann live upstairs and judging from what went on last night roughness live downstairs. Anyway when we heard this noise we started listening and we got to hear the angriest line of curse words and a woman scream, and finally just a big thud as she hit the floor over then the front door banged and out went a man, just leaving it. But from the conversation there seemed to be two other still down there and also two women, one of whom was knocked out. Boo said she was going to see the landlord and have him put those people out. Gee it was lots of fun, of course Boo just rather scared me on account of what & Aum but believe me I sure did want to go down and see what it was all about.
But pretty soon things got all gent and the "lady" who got knocked out seemed to be alright again.
Then we went down to the Carnival. you know they have shows there just as they do at the Hall. I guess it's the same ones. Well Ann and May and I went together for a while and then finally Boo started carrying her. I saw a whole bunch of boys from school down there and today they wanted to know where I got the family. We went in to see the Follies and it was some show. Rebel said she never would get over blushing, it was like the gaily we saw honey, only a whole lot worse. They had a woman that who could certainly Shemmy, Gee she Sure shook a wicked hip. Then we took a ride on the Merry Go Round, all except Joe and he knew it would make him sick, so we three went and Margie started getting dizzy so I had to hold her.

Well honey, Re Walt + Henry + Heavy all told me to tell you that the candy certainly was good and it sure is sweet.

Yours dear I know it will be alright for you to come down Thanksgiving, they have lots of room and Ann is awful nice. Honey I can’t see it but in one way anyway so there isn't any use to ask me any more about it, but still I'm glad you did dear. I like for you to ask me what I think about things anyway.

Sweetheart she get up for tomorrow and she been teaching (?) Biology for the last half hour or more and now I've got to get busy and study some part.

I know you always say you don't have to always work hard, but I just feel like you do because I miss you. I'm so sorry you had to Well Sunday. Did you go back Sunday afternoon, and then you worked until seven Monday. Now that won’t do. I see where I’ll have to give someone a good lecture.

I wish I would get a chance to go to bed at 8:15 I need to remember when I went to bed at eleven anyway unless it was on the train. Last Saturday night when you were up so late, it was 12:30 before I got to bed, due to that checker game my roommates and Nash were having.

With all my love dear
