

Postage Mark Date Unreadable
1920
Houston, TX

Postage Torn off

Saturday Night

Mrs. O.H. Eisenlohr
c/o Texas Power and Light Co.
Interurban Bldg.
Dallas, TX

My darling Sweetheart,

I surely hope you aren't feeling as blue and lonesome as I am tonight. This has been the longest day to me, and I was always thinking about what we were doing this time last week. It sure will seem like Heaven to be back there with you. I went to a show this afternoon and then came back up and tried to sleep but couldn't. It's no fun sleeping by yourself anymore anyway, and I sure will be glad when I can have you to hold again darling. Gee but I miss you. I just came back from supper. It was a whole lot different from the one we had last week. Now what in the world will I do tonight, go walk around and then come back up and hold my hands I guess. Honey I'm just going crazy before long. I sure wish I could be up there in our room with you, just you dear. I'm always happier when I'm with you alone than when we are with a crowd. Like now I've got lots of people I could go see, but I don't want to, I just want to be by myself so I can think about you sweetheart.

I sure was glad to get my letter this afternoon, Honey. I don't know why you don't get your letters regular because I mail them every morning. You should have gotten one today at home and another one tomorrow. I sure hope I get one tomorrow, it's going to be all that will save me I know.

I am glad you had a good time at the Majestic dear- but what was the catty instance you were talking about? Can't you tell me beforehand sweetheart? I will go to see it next week if I can dear- you know I like to go see things that I know you have seen too.

Did you write all your thank you notes darling or did you leave some for me? I am afraid I wouldn't be very good at that though, I never know what to say. Just "thank you" with me always means a barrel full. Gee I sure wish I could come out and enjoy sleeping in our nice bed with you dearest, if just makes me feel awful to think about it.

Honey you remember that funny place I had on my left ear- well the other night I got to squeezing it and I wish you could have seen what came out. I thought there never was going to be an end to it. It is just about all gone now.

You know they haven't sent me my check yet. I am going to write a letter tomorrow and tell them to send it along with some expense money. I can't imagine why they haven't sent it before.

My foot is alright dear. I don't know what was the matter with it last Saturday night.

No sweetheart you are not one bit silly. I wouldn't have you any other way. Your [sic] just the sweetest little wife in the world, and I sure do love you darling.

I am glad you love my mother, dear, she certainly means a world to me. I often think that I haven't been as kind to her as I should have been, and if there is anything in the world that hurts me it is to see her unhappy. She has gone thru so much and she has missed so much of life because she can't hear well. I simply can't express how I do feel when I know she is unhappy and I feel the same towards you sweetheart. I know I have funny ways about some things and I often seem as if I don't care, but it's just because I've trained myself, if possible, not to show my feelings. Well I guess I had better quit before I say too much.

I will write you some more in the morning dear. I love you sweetheart with all my love.

Well Honey here it is Sunday morning and it isn't 1/1,000,000,000 as nice as it was last Sunday. I had to get up by myself & I've got to go breakfast by myself and I'm darn tired of doing everything by myself. I went to see bringing up father last night. It was supposed to be a musical comedy, but I didn't think it was very good. It was funny in spots but that is all. Honey I wish you would find out from Mother whether she intends to have the Xmas tree all silver this year or not. If she does if she has got enough silver trimmings. I started to buy some down here last night and then I thought I had better find out first what the plans are etc.

Well Sweetheart I am going to church this morning but am going to mail this letter on the train first. I love you sweetheart mine.

With all my love to you,

Otto