

Players send up SOS

The Rice Players will present their annual series of student-directed one-act plays on December 7-10 at 8 pm in Hamman Hall.

The series is titled "S. O. S." for the authors: Strindberg ("Miss Julie") directed by Fred Roberts, O'Neill ("Where the Cross is Made") directed by Drew Meyer, and Schaffer ("The Private Ear") directed by Bob Sculley.

Their casts are as follows:

"Miss Julie": Roberta Reed,

Peter Hempel, and Connie Brown.

"Where the Cross is Made": Bob Stout, Carol Loanne Fisher, (another) Bob Stout, and Ed McGuckin.

The three plays consist of two gloomy tales, "Miss Julie" and "Where the Cross is Made," and one comedy, "The Private Ear." The movie, "The Pad and How to Use It," was based on "The Private Ear."

Tickets will be on sale in the RMC, at Foley's and at JA 8-4141 starting December 2.
