

The Jones Girls Set Their First Big Dance Nov. 1

Plans for the Jones College semi-formal dance which will take place this Saturday, November 1, are nearing completion. Nancy Mauney, dance committee chairman, has announced that the dance is invitational and will be held in the Jones College Commons.

Jones College girls and their dates will dance to the music of Wes Evans from 8:30 till 12:30, with a breakfast immediately following the dance. The theme for the dance, Autumn Leaves, will be carried out in the leaves and fruit of that season.

Tickets will be on sale in the Jones Commons throughout this week. Committees for the dance are: Jay Butler, decorations; Elizabeth Wenck, refreshments; Kitty Redmond, music.
