

Campus Criminal Parks His Car

University of Kansas campus police couldn't understand how cars were getting into a parking lot, past a toll gate, without specially issued cards. The cards had to be inserted into the gate to make it rise.

Yet drivers without the cards were parking there, said DAILY KANSAN.

Then a little boy was seen putting something in the gate and gleefully watching startled drivers edge into the lot. His "ticket?" A piece of popcorn box.

"I saw people putting cards in," explained the six-year-old, "so I tried my own." Police have reset the toll gate so popcorn boxes don't work there anymore.
