Most of the spectators know about our great churchmen and we really have a large number.

Our writers and editors are very interesting, and especially Mr. W. A. Scott because he is manager and editor of the Atlanta Daily World, the only Negro daily paper in America.

Let us take a look at our Captains of Industry and our business; here we see Mr. John Merrick, Mr. Abbeo Herndon, Mr. Norris Herndon, Mr. E. M. Murfin, Mr. A. L. Lewis, Madame C. J. Walker, Mrs. A. E. Malone, Mr. Walter Aiken and scores of others.

We go next to Sports, we have many who have won both national and international fame, a few of them are: Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella, Larry Doby, Althea Gibson, Joe Louis, Joe Perry and Sam Jones. Let us not forget the coaches and trainers who work with these people.

Our race is blessed with outstanding musicians and in this display we have the names of twenty-five and the pictures of sixteen others. We shall always love Mr. Roland Hayes, our greatest tenor and near him is a picture of Miss Marian Anderson. Time will not permit us to discuss each one, because we must spend some time with our great artists. Mr. Henry O. Tanner is internationally known and we have many others who are famous at home and abroad.

We must now pause to give recognition to the many Negroes who are internationally known. We have seen them in other areas, but here we see them once more: Ralph Bunche, G. W. Carver, Paul Laurence Dunbar, Alexander Pushkin, Frederick Douglass, Booker T. Washington, W. E. B. Du Bois, Toussaint L'Otavere and Henry O. Tanner.

All races have their shrines, statues and monuments and we have ours. They are dear to us. This is the first area in the display.

In addition to the activities and the displays there are daily discussions in the classes on the Negro. Judging by the interest shown and the questions asked, it is safe to say that the students are hungry for knowledge of our people.

TEXAS

OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION
Negro History Week-Negro History MONTH
By Dominick R. Glass
President of Texas College
Tyler, Texas

To the Dean, Faculty, Students and Community:

WHEREAS: our College promotes the study and teaching of man's cultural achievements and helps students develop competence, character and christian citizenship; and

WHEREAS: any omission or distortion of the contribution of some minority elements in textbooks or other organized affairs of life has made such study and teaching difficult and incomplete; and

WHEREAS: the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History has designated February 9-14, 1958 as NEGRO HISTORY WEEK and the Department of Social Science and Business (through the Social Science Club and the Business Club) has designated February 1-28, 1958 as NEGRO HISTORY MONTH, therefore

I, as President of Texas College, do hereby proclaim these two periods, February 9-14, 1958 as NEGRO HISTORY WEEK and February 1-28, 1958 as NEGRO HISTORY MONTH and encourage you in your several capacities to assist in promoting and appreciating the various events.

Finally, I commend the plans and progress of the Social Science and Business Club and Staff in your classes, your assemblies and in the community.

In official recognition thereof I give my signature this first day of February, 1958.

Dominick R. Glass
President

EXPERTS OF SPEECHES BY FREDERICK DOUGLASS-AFFIRMING THE EQUALITY OF THE NEGRO:

Is it the astonishing that, while we are plowing, planting, and reaping, using all kinds of mechanical tools, erecting houses, constructing bridges, building ships, working in metal of brass, iron, copper, silver, and gold; that while we are reading, writing, and cyphering, acting as clerks, merchants, and secretaries, having among us lawyers, doctors, ministers, poets, authors, editors, orators, and teachers; that while we are engaged in all manner of enterprises common to other men — digging gold in California, capturing whale in the Pacific, feeding sheep and cattle on the hillside, living, moving, acting, thinking, planning, living in families as husbands, wives, and children, and above all, confessing and worshipping God, and looking hopefully for life and immortality beyond the grave—we are called upon to prove that we are men?

ADMONITION TO WHITES WHO JUDGE NEGROS:

To the white people I say, measure not the colored man from the heights you have attained, but rather from the depths from which he has come—those depths into which you plunged him and held him for two centuries.

PROPERY OF FULL FREEDOM AND INTEGRATION

What Abraham Lincoln said in respect of the United States is as true of the colored people as of the relations of those states. They cannot remain half slave and half free. Until this half-and-half condition is ended, you will have an aggrieved class, and that struggle will go on. Until color shall cease to be a bar to equal participation in the offices and honors of this country, this struggle will go on. In a word, until truth and humanity shall cease to be living ideas, this struggle will go on.

Frederic Douglass, born a slave, became a fiery anti-slavery orator and journalist. Publishing The North Star in Rochester, New York. He was born in 1817, developed into one of the greatest leaders, held numerous offices and died in 1895.

NEGRO HISTORY WEEK AT TEXAS SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY

Each year the Department of History at Texas Southern University in observing Negro History Week has sponsored programs centering around some theme pertaining to the role of the Negro in the development of American culture. The contributions of the Negro and loyal friends among other races are highlighted. This year, the celebration of “Proud American Day” added significance to the program.

In the Thursday Morning assembly, arranged by Mr. W. L. Brown, incidents in the lives of three “Proud Americans” who were dedicated to securing freedom and dignity for the Negro were discussed by the department of history. This list included Frederick Douglass, Abraham Lincoln, and Carter G. Woodson. Then panel was composed of Dr. J. Reuben Shooler, Dr. Howard H. Bell, Dr. George W. Domke, Dr. M. Joudayn Atkinson, Mr. W. L. Brown, Mr. Abram M. Tompkins, Mr. Hunter O. Brooks, and Dr. I. Man Tsien.

On Sunday morning a panel composed of Professors J. Reuben Shooler, Henry A. Ballock, John Lush, Roland Dolumb, and Howard H. Bell was presented over radio station KCOH.
