Mrs. B. J. Covington
"Woman of The Year"

Sunday, April 8, 1951 - 7 o'Clock P. M.

ANTIOCH BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. Earl R. Boone, Pastor

Soror Jayne Robinson, President of Zeta Council

The Honoree

MRS. B. J. COVINGTON has for a number of years served the community of Houston in many ways. Her most outstanding contribution perhaps was her work in the Y. W. C. A. She was the founder of the Blue Triangle Branch, now located on Live Oak and Bell, and she is still an ardent worker in the "Y".

In the field of religion she has spread herself in many areas, and Antioch Church boasts of her many services through the years.

Her inter-racial activities have won for her the admiration of both races locally and throughout the state. She is an active member of both, the Houston and the Texas Inter-Racial Commission.

As a wife and a mother her contribution must not be overlooked. She has served faithfully and is still serving her physician husband, Dr. B. J. Covington; and she has reared a very accomplished daughter, Mrs. Jessie Covington Dent, outstanding pianist and "First Lady" of Dillard University.

Zeta Phi Beta sorors are happy to have you choose and to show honor to the "Woman of The Year" 1951, for we sincerely believe that the honor is long over-due.
