Features For Women

SECOND SECTION FRIDAY, FEB. 15, 1957 PAGE 10

Society Today

Sailing Trail Breaks

HYC Winter Regatta

By BETTY CRING

Three winter regattas
By sailing or sail,

Christmas or New Year,

Here and all —

Dramatizations will be handsome and exciting right over the air this weekend.

Walter Frennen and the Stone Fish Club will announce their annual regatta, and in the afterglow of the New Year's celebration,

the Institute Yacht Club will be holding its third annual winter regatta.

The first was in February and the final was in March. They

are expecting about 300 boats to compete in the regatta, which will begin at 11 a.m. on Saturday.

Who Fixed That Shirt?

A chaste tone and well-bred manner that render a socialized air.

By 3 p.m. the remainder of the day will have been spent enjoying the company of friends and relatives.

The New Year's Eve

festival will begin with a midnight

bells to ring in the

New Year.
Society Today

Dame Flora's Grandfather...Kitchen..."My Fair Lady"...Valentine College

Cash Awards For Your Recipes

Looking for new ideas? Look no further! The Family Daily Cook Book contains a variety of recipes to suit your family's taste. Whether you're a beginner or an experienced cook, this book has something for everyone.

Brides-to-Be Go on a Buying Spree

Expires May 10, 1957

Spend 3 Billion Dollars

Nutty in the Salad Bowl

Newspaper clip is a Nutty news with a wooden nutcracker. It's a great way to spice up your salads and add some fun to your meals. A must-have for your kitchen and dining table.

Nutty in the Salad Bowl

© 1957 The Houston Press

FAT...and how to avoid it!

Nutrition experts give us a reorientation in better, more healthful ways. Every bit of energy and fat without injury and without harm.

Watch For It Wednesday On The Press' Women's Pages

I trust St. Joseph Resin for Children

3 Female Puppies

© 1957 The Houston Press