RAILROAD HEADS TO SEEK FURTHER CUT IN EMPLOYES' WAGE

Will Not Reduce Railroads Until Wage Rates Are Made Still Lower.

UNION LEADERS AMUSED AT NATURE OF REQUEST

Surprised That Further Reductions Are Asked With Strike Over Last Cut Likely.

(Kansas City Star) The railroad's efforts to cut costs have reached a new level recently, reducing wages and seeking further cuts in employees' wages. This action has caused amusement among union leaders, who are not surprised at the request but are concerned about the potential for a strike over the last cut.
