At precisely 10 p.m. Friday, there will be a “changing of the guard” at Houston Yacht Club and the flag of the new commodore, Stephen S. Brown, will be hoisted in the ballroom.

The flag ceremony is part of the annual Commodores Ball at H.Y.C., and past commodores and their wives have an honor table for the party. Commodore Garner Mabry’s flag will be lowered and presented to him as a symbol of the end of his command.

Other new officers are A. S. Barada Jr., vice commodore; Sidney T. Ellis, rear commodore, and Raoul Beasley, fleet captain.

The formal affair will begin at 7:30 p.m. and dancing, at 9. Maynard Gimble’s group will play.

Mrs. John Price is in charge of the nautical decorations.
