BIOGRAPHY

JOHN PERRY, a graduate of Eastman School of Music, was a Fulbright Scholarship student in Vienna where he lived for several years. His teachers included Cecile Gerhart, Frank Mannheimer, and Carlo Zecchi. Winner of the highest prizes in the Busoni and Viotti contests, Mr. Perry has performed throughout Europe, the United States, and Canada as soloist and chamber musician. In addition, he has established himself as a teacher whose students have won numerous awards, and his workshops and master classes have been given at colleges and universities throughout the country. Mr. Perry has been professor at the University of Kansas, Oberlin College Conservatory, and the University of Texas. Currently he is professor of piano at the University of Southern California. In addition to his duties at Aspen this summer, he conducted master classes in London and Innsbruck. Mr. Perry records for the Musical Heritage Society, Vox, and Telefunken labels.
