

Kolenda Looks At Results of Book-of-Semester Discussions

"We had a good time."

This was how Dr. Konstantin Kolenda summed up the recently completed Book-of-the-Semester discussions. Although the average attendance at the discussions was only 25 people, the participating group was very interested in its subject, "The House of Intellect" by Jacques Barzun—thus they had some lively and interesting discussions.

EACH MEETING of the discussion group began with a talk by a distinguished speaker on the week's topic. Some of the speakers and their topics were Dr. John Pickard on language, Dr. George Williams on education, and J. Newton Rayzor on philanthropy.

Dr. Kolenda extended an invitation to all interested students to join the discussion group next semester. The book which will be discussed has not yet been chosen. Anyone who would like to suggest a book should contact Tom Giesen in Will Rice College.
