Tommy Dorsey Group Signed; '60 Homecoming

By LESLIE ARNOLD

The Senate was almost completely concerned with routine duties when they met Wednesday night. It was the kind of tedious but necessary business that takes up so much time.

Herz announced that he had signed a contract for the Tommy Dorsey orchestra for Homecoming next year. A check for $750 was given as earnest money.

ACCORDING TO the contract we are irrevocably committed, but the Dorsey group can back out anytime up to four weeks before Homecoming. However, Herz says that he has been assured that nothing short of a plane wreck will stop the band from making their appearance.

GEARY EPPLEY brought up the matter of Course Evaluation booklets for freshmen to be mailed to them over the summer. After some debate it was decided to allow Eppley to go ahead with his ideas on the project with the stipulations that 1) there be no cost to the freshmen and 2) there be some sort of an advisory board set up to pass on the material to be published.

Eppley stated however that he does not intend to go through with the thing unless he can sell enough advertising to make a profit on the venture. No one really expected him to do it out of the goodness of his soul anyway.

IF THE IMPORTANCE of a subject is measured in minutes of debate spent on it, the most important thing discussed was whether or not to increase the size of the Forum Committee from five to seven. Gary Webb, Forum Committee Chairman for next year, wanted six other students on the committee with him. The Senate was afraid this would set a precedent and in later years (Continued on Page 8)

The Forum Committee by-law stated that there should be five members with a maximum of two faculty members. Boone moved to amend this so there could be seven students on the committee.

This failed to get the two-thirds majority. Nathans moved to amend the by-law so there could be five students plus two faculty. This passed. Then Nathans moved to have a total of seven members with a maximum of two faculty members. Finally the Senate moved on to other things.

BUDGETS WERE approved. The next year’s Student Association budget, the budgets of the 1961 Campanile and Thresher, and financial reports of 1959 Campanile and the 1960 Thresher were discussed and/or okayed.

Much of the Thresher staff left the meeting with martyred looks since the Senate did not allot $67 to cover the cost of printing and mailing the course evaluation forms.
