

Host Committee Winds Up Several Weeks Of Planning

For the past few weeks a special host committee has handled the last-minute details for Prof. Paul Tillich's visit.

Headed by Judy Poinsett, this committee has planned such things as where Prof. Tillich would spend time with students and what questions the Rice student would like to have answered most. Its members will also usher at all of his lectures.

Roy Nolen, Robert Johnston, Roy Reid, and Jody Hanke headed various sub-committees.

The other committee members included Lamar Allen, Don Teal, and Marvin Tarrant, all from Hanszen; Ted Brunn, Bob Herring, Dick Jekel, and John Reavis, all from Wiess;

Martin Arthur, Grant Hutchins, Robert E. Lewis, and Don Payne, all from Will Rice; Alton Bryant, Clyde Mayo, Eugene Richeson, and Jack Schwade, all from Baker;

Sperry Blake, Ann Hebert, Kay Kellogg, Bethie Rollins, and Mary Day Milbank, all from Jones North; Mary Ann Boone, Betty Creech, Pat Hills, Tess Lindsay, and Cynthia Lyle, all from Jones South;

Marillyn Bresky, Jo Beth Jaggers, Penny Pillow, Wendy Rainbow, Rosalynn Revis, Marjorie Trulan, Rolfe Johnson, Steven Paine, and Clay Wellborn, all non-residents.
