Parties, Parties, -- And Reunions

By Wanda Phears and Ann Kriegel

Rice vs. LSU, the first game of the year, has opened the football season and revived our spirits. While most of us yelled at a TV set to help boost our team, some 150 students went to Baton Rouge personally to give the Tiger cheering section some competition.

Yelling with our cheerleaders were Anne Witte, Carl Isgren, Roy Lively, Georgia Morrison, Don Sharp, Marilyn Meyer, Ron Nichols, Wendy Rainbow, Phil Morris, Jim Hammond, Dan Develin, Merton Young, and Syd Nathans. Showing Baton Rouge hospitality, Bob Mattox had friends to his home for lunch and Danny Barnum hosted a dinner party.

Seniors began their last year together with a party at the home of Ann Schudy on Monday night. Fraternizing over cookies and dips were Helen Hardin, Bill Heyck, John Touhey, Kitty Redmond, Julie Souchek, Jim Brauner, Chris Brewer, Art Foust, Doug Tharp, Marguerite Durham, Cathy Terrell, Harry Reasoner, Joy Kenter, Bob Bevers, and Clifford Cantrell.

The “wicked” Junior class opened free cans of beer and had a jolly reunion. (Some cokes were also served.) Eddy Sivess, Benny Green, Maggie Garrett, Bob Moody, Betsy Graham, Arnold Victor, Jay Butler, Jack Lowe, Bruce Bleil, Helen Morgan, Norman Charlton, and Bob May were in the smiling crowd. Also in the crowd, but not enjoying the free beer, were Johnny Stephenson, Rufus and Boyd King, Lonnie Caddell and Mike Bowen.

Beanies bounced and mingled at the frosh dance Saturday night. Doug Hervey, Kathi Bullock, Ken Simmons, Rosemary Rodd, Wayne McClelland, Jeanie Gilliland, Dave Tilson, Sally Robinson, Chuck Caldwell (no beanie), Sally Terrell, Mike Bennett (beanieless), Mary Ann Moore, Eddie Cooke (smiling), Shaun Allen, Bob Leffingwell (snowing), Evelyn Crooker, Kathleen Much, and Lover Frank Van Orden got acquainted.

Sophomores, John Fallon, Mary Jabsen, Eric Olsen, Mary Kay Manning, Mike Kramer, Sue Woolen, Leon Fitts, Tess Lindsey, Barry Moore, Lorna Burrell, Jack Schwade, Helen Hendrick, and John Heard gathered at the Student Center Monday night and danced to the piano of Don Haygood and sporadic outbursts from the jukebox.

Dancing and admiring Wiess College blazers Monday evening were freshmen girls, Judy Raden, Margo Garrett, Kathy Kient, Elizabeth Embry, Diane Lohr, Carolyn Gurklis, and Mary Fae Coulter who were greeted by Wiess boys, Chris Knudsen, Steve Doty, John Crowder, Alfred Kramer, Melvin Lack, T. Rader, Frank Hubert, and Randall Vincent at their welcoming dance. Dr. Roy Talmage, College Master, and Mrs. Talmage were seen cha-cha-cha-ing behind the punch bowl.
