

The Student Association's Election Committee announces that General Elections will be March 16, with run-offs March 19. This is two weeks earlier than the date announced earlier this semester.