With an eye toward acquainting freshmen with religious activities on and around the campus, several religious organizations are beginning their programs this weekend, September 19-20.

The Baptist Student Union will hold an overnight retreat Saturday and Sunday at Camp Mansson, near Friendswood. Special speakers will be Dr. Niels Nielsen and J. Newton Rayzor, Professor of Philosophy and Religious Thought; Dr. W. F. Howard, state B.S.U. secretary; and Mr. Bill Lawson, church worker at Texas Southern University. The group will leave the Baptist Student Center, 6530 Fannin, at 1:10 P.M. Saturday afternoon.

Leader of MSM

Dr. Robert Elliott, recent recipient of a Ph. D. in religion and personality from the University of Chicago and presently teaching at Perkins School of Theology, is the seminar leader for the Methodist Student Movement’s week end at Camp Reposo.

The Canterbury Association will travel to Camp Allen, near Association reception to be held Thursday, September 24, 7:30 p.m., at the Lutheran Student Center, 3826 Wheeler, Baytown, for a week end led by the Rev. Lane Denson, Episcopal chaplain for Rice and the Texas Medical Center. The group will leave from Autry House, across Main Street from the campus, about 1:30 P.M Saturday. Other upcoming Canterbury activities include a special celebration of the Holy Communion Tuesday, September 22, at 7 AM to begin the school year and a regular celebration Wednesday at 7 AM, both services being followed by a free breakfast.

A buffet dinner at the home of Diane Frosch, 2159 Swift, will begin the year’s activities for Hillel, campus organization sponsored by B’nai B’rith for Jewish students. Anyone needing a ride for the 8 o’clock dinner may call JA 3-7933.

Gunn to Speak

A Presbyterian Student Association dinner at Autry House is being held for all Presbyterian freshmen at 6 o’clock Sunday. The Rev. James Gunn, Presbyterian University Pastor, will be the speaker.

The Rev. Milton Mayer, Lutheran student pastor for Rice and the University of Houston, will meet with all old and new students at a Lutheran Student Association reception September 24, 7:30 p.m., at Lutheran Student Center.
