Continuous Blast
Coming Weekend
Of RU-Aggie Game

By SUE BURTON

The fun and excitement of Homecoming weekend will start at 4:30 pm Friday, November 11, with the intramural football championship game, to be played in the intramural field by the gym. From then until the wee hours of the morning on Sunday, there will be no let-up in the scheduled activities and events.

AS USUAL, each class and college will construct a float, but this year, something new has been added. They will be built on litteres (wood will be supplied by the alumni association) so that they can be carried from place to place.

Judging starts at 4:45 Friday; at 5:30 there will be a parade of the floats around the campus, after which they will be returned to their places. They will again be displayed at half-time during the game. Theme for these floats: "To Hell with A&M."

The alumni banquet will begin at about 7:00 pm and former Riceites will have the pleasure of seeing the homecoming princesses here.

THE HANZSEN Minstrel in Hamman Hall begins at 7:30 pm. Once again, the homecoming princesses will be presented.

Freshmen will hold torches along the paths from the RMC and Hamman to the bonfire which starts at 9:30. Students
