The college basketball playoffs have begun as Wiess College defeated Will Rice 40-28. Wiess was led by Johnny Bourg and Larry Stewart who had 12 and 9 points respectively. Dan Malin was high for Will Rice with 7 points.

After the first week of volleyball, the Aces, Punchers, Geologists, Plumbers, and Coons are undefeated. The Aces are the defending champs and should be the team to beat.

In the regular handball doubles the teams of Jim Treybig and John Brennan and Leonard Fawcett and Frank Price each have won two and lost none. In the novice class, only Frank Bertram and Donald Kirks show the 2-0 record. Several other teams in each class have 1-0 marks.

With only one match being reported in the Badminton doubles, Doug Hansen and Jess Stuart are in undisputed first place with a 1-0 record.
