

Hanszen Offers Exchange Sunday: Books For Jazz

Hanszen College will present a jazz concert this Sunday at 2:30 in the Hanszen Commons.

Jerry Sandifer and his quartet will provide the jazz for the show. The proceeds from the ticket sales will be used to acquire books for the Hanszen Library.

Doug Harlan stated that books of a suitable nature (no thrillers) whose original price was more than 75c will be accepted in lieu of admission money. This option must, however, be exercised before 7:30 pm Friday. Sales will be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday after dinner in commons.

After Friday tickets will be sold for 75c.
