

Welcome Home

The Thresher extends a cordial welcome to its former readers and staff members on campus this weekend for a busy, thoroughly entertaining Homecoming 1960.

In these pages, on the gravelled sidewalks and mud channels, and in the familiar old halls and plush new buildings, you will find Rice students today fighting the good fight just as you left it.

Best wishes for a most rewarding weekend—and here's to another Owl victory over those old, embattled farmers!
