

Mr. McEnany announced to the Thresher Wednesday that policy concerning missed final exams has been severely tightened by the Committee on Examinations and Standings.

Students will not be allowed to make up finals unless they can show sufficient reason why they were unable to take them at regularly scheduled times.