

BISHOP HINES

Next Chapel Speaker

Bishop Hines Speaks April 30

BISHOP JOHN HINES of the Episcopal Diocese of Texas will speak at the Rice chapel next Thursday, April 30. The service will last from 7 to 7:50 pm, and the Rice glee club under the direction of Mr. Arthur Hall will present "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach.

Bishop Hines, a graduate of the University of the South in Sewanee and the Virginia Theological Seminary, was rector of Christ Church Cathedral in Houston at the time of his election. He was Secretary of the Family in Contemporary Society Commission at the Lambeth Conference in England last year, and is now serving as the president of the Greater Houston Council of Churches this year.

He also holds a leading position in relating the ministry to the college campus, being chairman of the Episcopal National Commission on College work.

This program will be the last chapel program of the year.
