

Lovett Wins Hanszen Presidency

Malcolm Lovett was elected president of Hanszen College in the election on Wednesday. A preferential ballot was needed to decide his victory over Roy Meals.

Ed Buckner was elected vice-president; Karl Staus, secretary; John King, treasurer; and Jim Woodward, chief justice.

Other college positions filled in the election were: Robins

Brice, advocate; David Cohen, senator; Charles Schade, councilman-at-large; Richard Foster, senior on-campus representative; Carl Ulrich, senior off-campus representative; Jimmy Tighe, junior on-campus representative; Brinckley George, junior off-campus representative; and John Spear, sophomore off-campus representative.

---