

Rice racket squad tangles with U of H

Last Friday on the Rice tennis courts a team of three Rice co-eds battled a contingent from the University of Houston to a 2-2 tie, winning one singles and one doubles match while dropping two singles matches.

In singles play, Peggy Shertzen, former Alabama state singles champion, defeated her opponent 6-2, 6-0. Carol Flake dropped her match 4-6, 3-6, while Rachel Adams, former Texas state doubles champ, lost to her U of H counterpart 4-6, 1-6.

In doubles play, Miss Shertzer and Miss Adams took their match 3-6, 6-4, 3-2, in a final set abbreviated because of darkness.

On November 14, the Owl-ettes, joined by Dasha Jitkoff, will journey to the U of H for a return match.

In addition, the P.E. Department has tentative plans to sponsor a Rice girls' tennis tournament in the near future.
