

Touch Football Leagues Open Play, Tennis Competition To Begin Soon

Intramural touch football competition, entered by 25 teams in four leagues, began play last week.

Led by the passing of George Person and the receiving of Gene Timberlake and Bill Wylie, the Pathetics crushed the Brutes 32-6 to open the Monday League. The Truth Beauties scored on a pass from Johnny Johnson to Tommy Jackson to default the Throwbacks 6-0.

In the Wednesday League, passer John Pickens and receivers Jim Cogan and Larry Bell led Barry's Boys to a 19-6 win over the Pseudo Jocks. Harpies' quarterback Paul Nimmons found no trouble in finding Mike Windham and Charles White for 32 points over the Soft Sots.

The Thursday League teams piled up astronomical scores. Mike Evans, Steve Wood, and Sumner Bowen carried the Will Rice Jocks II to a 41-0 pasting of the Navasota Rattlers.

With passer Gary Zintgraff hitting Bill Sage on two bombs of over 40 yards, the Dogs defeated the Begonias 32-6.

Mike Dossett hit Tom Sudberry and Joe Simmons with ease as Sigma Epsilon Chi whitewashed the Baker Mets 26-0.

In the only game played Friday, the Ids shut out the Satyrs 7-0.

Tennis is the only other sport whose entries are complete as of now, and competition will begin soon.
