

Pathetics In Grid 'Murals Playoffs

The Pathetics came from behind to beat the Brutes 19-18 to take the Monday League touch football championship. Trailing 18-7, the Pathetics were rained out with seven minutes remaining in the first half, two weeks ago.

After the game resumed at that point, last Monday, quarterback George Person threw two touchdown passes to pull out the game. They will take on Barry's Boys, winners of the Wednesday League, to begin the intramural league championship playoff.

The Thursday League wound up in a tie between the Will Rice Jocks II and Sigma Epsilon Chi. Jocks II beat the Dogs on a forfeit, and Sigma Epsilon Chi blasted the Navasota Rattlers 45-7. These two must play to decide who will meet the Will Rice Jocks, winners of the Friday League.

The Rejects, 26-0 victors over the Fulton's Folly, played the Baker Frosh today for the Freshman League crown. The Weanie Stompers stopped the Mullets 12-6 in a game between the also-rans.
