

William P. Hobby, Jr., of the Houston Post, will address Wiess College at their first college night of the spring semester Monday, February 29.

Mr. Hobby, a Rice graduate of 1953, and a former Thresher staffer, will speak on "A Reporter's View of President Eisenhower's Trip." He has recently returned from accompanying the President of his trip to Europe and the Near East.

Non-resident members are especially invited to take advantage of this opportunity to have supper at the college's expense and hear this speaker.
