

Politicians Slated For Speeches By Forum Committee

A possible appearance of one of the national Republican nominees as well as other political figures are the main attractions in the Forum Committee's program for the first semester, according to Forum chairman Chuck Guy King.

During the national campaign the committee will sponsor several political speeches. One of the Republican national candidates will speak, plus several state candidates from both parties.

On November 8, Representative Henry Gonzales, a Democrat from San Antonio, will speak on either the significance of the election or minority group problems.

The movie "Point of Order," which concerns Senator McCarthy, will be featured on November 23. A debate will follow between L. Brent Bozell, the author of "McCarthy and His Enemies," and a member of Rice's faculty.

A philosophy professor at the University of Texas will be at Rice on December 10. John R. Silber will speak on "Capital Punishment."

In late December or January, a military speaker will discuss the military situation in South Vietnam.
