Episcopal Nuclear Scientist Will Speak

By NEAL HOLIFIELD

HE WAS APPOINTED to his present position of Executive Director of the Institute in 1947. In 1950 he was the recipient of the Distinguished Service Award of the Southern Association of Science and Industry.

Dr. Pollard is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma XI, Phi Kappa Phi, and an honorary member of Sigma Phi Sigma. He is a Fellow of the American Physical Society and of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

IN 1951-52 he was the chairman of the Southeastern Section of the APS. He helped organize and was a member of the first Board of Governors of the American Nuclear Society.

A theoretical physicist, he has done research in the theory of beta reactivity, the interaction of molecules with solid surfaces, gaseous diffusion, and neutron diffraction.

ORDAINED A deacon in 1952, Dr. Pollard has served as priest-in-charge of St. Francis Episcopal Church, Norris, Tennessee, and now as Priest Associate in St. Stephen's Church in Oakridge since his ordination as a priest in 1954.

A Trustee of the University of the South, he was a member of the faculty in the Graduate School of Theology there in 1956-57.

Dr. Pollard served as director of the Kent School Anniversary Seminar on the Christian Ide of Education (Yale University Press, 1957), is coauthor of The Hebrew Iliad (Harpers, 1957), and author of Chance and Providence (Scribners, 1958). He was Vice-Chairman of the Joint Commission on the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy of the General Convention of the Episcopal Church (1955-58) and is presently a member of the Joint Commission on Human Relations and of the Nuclear Reactor Committee.

Starting Sunday, October 30, the Disciples Student Fellowship will begin a four-week study series on the Gospels. Anyone interested is urged to attend the discussions beginning at 5:00 pm in the parlor of the First Christian Church at 1601 Sunset Blvd.
