

Gilbert & Sullivan Society Offers Parts In 'Iolanthe'

The Gilbert & Sullivan Society has scheduled a production of Iolanthe for the last week in April.

The first rehearsal meeting of the chorus will be Sunday evening January 8 at 7:30 pm, in Hamman Auditorium.

ALL THOSE interested in singing principal and supporting roles are urged to meet with Mr. Arthur Hall, associate professor of music, in the basement of the Auditorium next Sunday evening, December 11, at 7:30 pm for requisite for participation.

It has been emphasized, for those who have not had the opportunity to observe the production, that talent is not a prerequisite for participation.
