Sights

... and Sounds

By JOHN BONDS

Continuing Events

Movie of the week is “Breakfast at Tiffany’s”— Audrey Hepburn portrays that incredible young hedonist known as Holly Golightly in this facsimile of Truman Capote’s book. At the Majestic.

Friday, Nov. 1

10:15 p.m. Late Show—“Viva Zapata,” Marlon Brando, Anthony Quinn—excellent story of the Mexican Revolution, Channel 11.

Saturday, Nov. 11

Homecoming activities. See complete schedule on page one.

Sunday, Nov. 12

4 p.m. Roberto Iglesias and his Ballet Espanol, the young, but widely cheered dance company from Spain, will present classics of their homeland, in the Music Hall.

Monday, Nov. 13

Tuesday, Nov. 14

Sir John repeats the program of Monday. The Mar-Keys will entertain at Jimmie Menutis’ for all you rock-n-rollers. Take an ID.

Wednesday, Nov. 15

All campus study night.

Thursday, Nov. 16

4:15 p.m. The Forum Committee will present the French Ambassador to the United States, M. Alphand. He will speak at 4:15 p.m. in the Grand Hall of the RMC.

8:30 p.m. Teller Lecture.

THE FOUR FRESHMEN will be featured in Sunday’s RMC concert.