

Rice, SMU to Play On TV Saturday

Students and friends of the Rice basketball team will have a chance to be on TV this Saturday, if they attend the Rice-SMU basketball game. The game will be broadcast at 2 pm on regional TV, with 30 stations participating in a 6-state coverage.

The Rice band and the Glee Club will perform at half-time, and to acquaint the TV audience with the Institute, Mr. McEnany, the registrar, will give a short talk. Coach Jess Neely will also talk on the Rice athletic program.

This will be the first time a Rice basketball game has had so wide a TV coverage, and it is hoped that a large audience will turn out.
