Dean’s List Shows Rise; Scholastic Probation Down

By HARVEY POLLARD

The newly-released Dean’s List shows a total of 178, a slight increase rise from 171 in the fall 1959-60 list. Out of an undergraduate enrollment of 1457, this amounts to 12.5% of the student body.

The scholastic probation list shows a vast drop from 159 in the fall of last year to 127 this fall. Scholastic probation hit 8% of the student body this year.

Of a Freshman class of 399, over seven percent are on the Dean’s List. Out of 353 sophomores, 10 percent; 48, or 14½ fall, there were 88 Freshmen on scholastic probation.

On the Dean’s List, 58 are from the Houston area, including 20 Lamar High School alums. There are also 30 out-of-staters on the list, reflecting rather accurately the geographical distribution of Rice undergraduates. percent of the Juniors; and 66, or 18 percent of the Senior class are on the Dean’s List.

AS WAS THE CASE last fall, the scholastic probation percentages are inversely proportional to class, according to Mr. M. V. McEnany, Registrar. In the Freshman class, 72, or 18% of the class, is on scholastic probation. The Sophomore class has 23, or 6 1/2%; the Junior class has 19, or 5.7%; and 13, or 4.8% of the Seniors are on the scholastic probation. Last
