

Hanszen Seminar Programs Probe Career Opportunities

The Hanszen College Program Committee has announced a series of occupational seminars for the month of March to be delivered by distinguished Rice alumni.

This week Mr. Bill Bucek and Mr. Tim Osborne presented programs on "Investments" and "Radio and Television" respectively; earlier Mr. Rufus King presented a seminar on "Insurance and Actuaries."

MONDAY NIGHT Mr. Elbert Turner, assistant to the editor and director of the Houston Post will present a program on the possibilities of a career in journalism. Wednesday Mr. Calvin Clausel will talk on "Industrial Advertising and Public Relations;" and a week from today Dr. George Walmsley will present a program on the "Medical Profession."

Students from all colleges are invited to attend the seminars to be held in the Hanszen Commons at 6:45. A complete list of speakers, dates, and programs is posted in each college.
