Three Possibilities To Suit All Tastes Coming To 'Big H'

By FRAN MURPHY

Diversified diversion is coming to Houston — three New Places To Go — all for different species and costs.

Specie No. 1: for the girl who wants to seem young and gay; the PE; or TRB's. The Circus Is Coming! The Arabia Shrine Circus will be at the Houston Coliseum from November 1 to 13. Clowns, ferocious animals, daring trapeze acts, popcorn, pink lemonade, etc. etc. etc. all will abound. Like a State Fair indoors.

COSTS: LOW to medium — 4.00, 3.00, 2.50 and 1.50. Times: 8:00 every evening, Saturday and Sunday matinees at 2:00.

Specie No. 2: for the sentimentalist; the hater of the juke box in Sammy's; and impressing freshmen girls. Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians will appear in the Music Hall on November 5. They are brought for a return Houston engagement by J. David Nichols. Two shows will be given at 7:00 and 9:30.

Costs: medium to high — 2.90, 3.90, 4.90, and 5.90.

SPECIE NO. 3: for the intellect, the Civil War by Van diver student, and the Druids. The first in the series of four (Continued on Page 10) plays sponsored by the Variety Club will be presented on November 2 and 3. It is Andersonville Trial, starring Brian Donlevy.
POSSIBILITIES . . .

(Continued from Page 4)

Briefly, it is the trial of Cap’ t. Henry Wirtz, who is held responsible for the deaths of 14,000 Civil War prisoners (Damnyankekee prisoners). All the profits will go to support the Boys Club of Houston.

Costs: medium — 4.50, 3.75, 3.00, 2.25 and 1.50. It will be presented at 8:00 in the Music Hall.