

OKLS To End Soon; Merging With CRLS

The Olga Keith Literary Society announces that it will have a formal ending December 11. The lit had its beginning ten years ago and will be well remembered for its annual Casino, style shows, sock hops, and many services to Rice.

The OK's desiring to continue work in another literary society voted unanimously to seek membership in Chaille Rice. Jo Beth Jagers, president of the CRLS, has extended to the OKLS an invitation for membership.

At the time of their formal ending, the active members of the OKLS will become members of the CRLS.

The officers of the OKLS are: president Wendy Rainbow; vice-president Martha Lee; recording secretary Johanna Baker;

Corresponding secretary Mary Margaret Litzmann; treasurer Walta Neuner; representative to the Women's Council, Ann Combs; and social chairman Jeanne Bryan.
