

The Rice Players Present 'Twelfth Night' May 3-4

Sunday and Monday, May 3 and 4, the Rice Players will present their annual Shakespeare-on-the-lawn production, which this year is "Twelfth Night." "Curtain time" is set for 8:15, and admission is free.

Jim Bernhard plays Sir Toby Belch, and Jim McCaslin plays his comical companion, Sir Andrew Aguecheck. Frank Dent plays "the madly-used Melvolio who is the steward of the countess Olivia, played by Pat Jones.

Ginger Purington and Paul Ebel play the twins, Viola and Sebastian. Louis Bell plays Orsino, Duke of Illyria, who is in love with Olivia. Trudy Haarman plays Olivia's merry gentlewoman, Maria. Sam Lux sings and plays the role of Feste, the clown.

Other cast members include Carruth McGehee, John Shanblum, Joe Rider, John Murphy, Jim Kuttle, Barry Moore, Reed Martin, and Max Jodeit.

Royal Roussel is director, assisted by Martin McClain and Carruth McGehee. Claire Plungian, Ginger Purington, and

(Continued on Page 8)

PLAYERS . . .

(Continued from Page 1)

Darraigh Fertitta are in charge of costumes. Claire is also working on make-up with Jim McCaslin. Publicity is being taken care of by Joe Rider and Phyllis Skaff. Phil Hughes is arranging the music and Jack Bond is technical director