

Nebbishes Ready For Ballyhoo Ball Saturday Night

The Junior Class introduces "Ballyhoo Ball" tomorrow night from 9 to 1 at Rice's first all-school party.

VARIOUS entertainment features have been planned to accent the evening's entertainment. Certain campus personalities will be in "spiritual" evidence as Nebbishes with their "Platforms" and slogans prominently displayed. "Because," "Yes or No," "The South Will Rise Again," "Deutschland uber alles" etc.). Albino Torres will provide a musical background for the evening's frolic, and an up to the minute report of the Rice-Florida game will be kept.

The Texas State Hotel in downtown Houston will host the semi-formal dance and tickets are available now in the Student Center at $3.50 per couple. Set ups will be furnished at a nominal fee. Rice Nebbishes are cordially invited.