Rice Awards Degrees to 332

Graduation ceremonies for 332 Rice Institute students were held Friday night on the campus.

Dr. Stanley L. Smith

Mr was the dean present on the campus.

On the second day of the ceremonies, a group of students was presented with diplomas by the president of the University of Arkansas.

The awards included 8332 students from the Institute of Science and Technology, and 832 students from the Institute of Engineering.

Graduate Dentists Urged To Avoid Dollar Ethics

Young dentists were urged to avoid dollar ethics by the Rice Dental Association, at a meeting of the association, in which the ethics were discussed.

Failure of Education Cited by Sen. Fulbright

Dr. William Y. Bush, commissioner of the Department of Education, cited the education system as being in a state of failure.

The commissioner cited a lack of funding and a lack of accountability as major problems.

The commissioner also cited a lack of innovation and a lack of emphasis on practical skills.

Lawmen Make Whoopee

Texas young guns stunt on motorcycles, at a time when the state has been in a state of lawlessness.

The young guns were seen riding motorcycles on a street in the city, while a group of people watched.

The young guns were seen riding motorcycles on a street in the city, while a group of people watched.

Il Jones Scholarships Are Awarded at Rice

Access to scholarships were the norm in the past, but this year, the Rice Institute awarded scholarships to 832 students.

The awards included 832 students from the Institute of Science and Technology, and 832 students from the Institute of Engineering.

The scholarships were awarded based on academic merit, and were given to students who demonstrated a commitment to their studies.

The recipients of the scholarships were honored at a special ceremony, where they were presented with their awards.

NO-NOISE PIANO IS 'THE THING'

Merritt, N. J. (AP) — If you wouldn't mind, please knock before entering my office, because the noise makes my head hurt.

The piano in my office is the soundest and the most popular in the building.

It has a large audience, and it is played by the most famous pianists.